

Biography

Dr. Swati Rajagopal, MD,
Consultant-Infectious Disease and Travel Medicine
Aster CMI Hospital,
Arista Health Clinic,
Bangalore, Karnataka.

Dr Swati Rajagopal is an Infectious Diseases Physician at Aster CMI Hospital, Bangalore.

Dr Swati completed her primary medical training at MS Ramaiah Medical College, affiliated to the Bangalore University followed by post graduate training in Internal Medicine and specialist training in Infectious Diseases at Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, affiliated to The University of Sydney.

Dr Rajagopal went on to pursue her specialist training in tropical diseases and Travel Medicine at The London School of Hygiene and tropical medicine, affiliated to the University of London.

She also holds an Infection Control Fellow certificate from the Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America and Infectious Disease Society of America.

She is a member of the Infectious Disease Society of America, Royal Australasian College Of Physicians, International Society of Travel Medicine and Aster CMI Infection prevention and antibiotic stewardship program.

Her clinical interests include antibiotic management in post-surgical and post- transplant patients, skin and soft tissue infections, bone and joint infections and HIV associated infections

Dr Swati's main research interests include understanding antimicrobial resistance mechanisms, surveillance and control of health care associated infections.